

XXX Annual Scientific Meeting

AiIG 2019

«The challenges ahead: work, technological change and the organizations of the future»

Developing research and education in Management Engineering

October 17th – 18th, 2019

Centro Congressi “Torino Incontra” – Via Nino Costa 8, Torino

New technologies and the digital transformation are giving raise to new forms of work and changes in organizations across industries on a global scale. Such rapid evolution has relevant implications for firms, concerning both the internal organization and the structuring of value chains, and for the society as a whole. These trends pose new and relevant challenges for research and education.
